Burnt Well Guest Ranch

Basic Information:

We are located in sunny, southeastern New Mexico. Guests have said 'This is John Wayne country! 'I can't believe how far you can see!! Sometimes 50-60 miles! 'I feel like I'm just visiting family, I feel so at home and welcome here! 'I was actually a valid part of the work at hand! 'It is so-o-o peaceful and relaxing here, my hectic life seems a world away! We've been asked, 'What does a normal day at Burnt Well look like? We tell them, 'The only thing normal at Burnt Well is the setting on the washing machine! We don't have set schedules. Flexibility is the word here, and YOU are the focus of our attention while you are at Burnt Well? The only exception would be if there is water problems (windmill, pipeline,etc.) or any other urgent ranch business that may come up, since we are a working ranch first, with no staff. We're it unless you're here and then WE'RE (including you) it! Come to Burnt Well, get dirty and have some fun, then kick your boots off and relax a spell!! We'll fill your tummy with good country food, fill your days with fun and adventure, fill the air with lots of conversation & laughter and fill your mind with unforgettable memories! At Burnt Well: We're committed to the quality of your stay..... Not the quantity of people we can run through our place!!

Accomodations: Our 3,000 square foot guest hacienda has two private rooms. The "INDIAN" room will sleep up to a family of 6 and the "RODEO" room will sleep up to a family of 4. Each room has a private bath. The spacious "GREAT" room has a native rock fireplace, a pool table, a kitchenette and lots of room for games, reading or relaxing. Off the "GREAT" room is the "WASH HOUSE" for your laundry convenience, the "BURNT WELL MERCANTILE" stocked with unique to Burnt Well and New Mexico gifts and souvenirs and "THE PRIVY" another full bathroom complete with a horse trough shower! There is also an inviting porch with lots of seating and a hot tub to sooth those saddle sore muscles!

Dining: At Burnt Well you will be exposed to our local Mexican food and lots of "Cowboy" cuisine, such as brisket, chicken fried steak, grilled steak and/or lamb chops, and plenty of other hearty country cooking. We eat all our meals together and family style in the main ranch house, or outside around the campfire. There's always PLENTY!! If you leave Burnt Well hungry it's your fault!

Entertainment: We're a simple ranch with simple pleasures such as; good conversation, lots of story telling and laughter, campfires and a night sky full of stars. You may be able to coax Patricia to pull out her fiddle and play a few old cowboy tunes or some sweet fiddle melodies. She may even be able to lure some musician friends out from town for a music night around that campfire under those twinkling stars.

Geronimo Trail Guest Ranch

Basic Information:

Open March through mid-November. Geronimo Trail Guest Ranch is a real western adventure! Horseback or hiking takes guests through beautiful forests of tall Ponderosa pine, through astounding deep canyons with sheer towering walls and crystal clear streams. From the 'Top of the World' guests view more than 3 million acres, 1000 square miles of the Gila National Forest, the Aldo Leopold and Gila Wildernesses. Elk, mule deer, wild turkey and other wildlife abound. Pithouses, cliff dwellings, and rock art of the earliest inhabitants, the Mimbres (750 - 1150) to explore in the immediate vicinity. The land Geronimo and the Apaches roamed. Well-trained, responsive horses for every ability. Our main focus is on trail riding: seeing the beautiful scenery from horseback, and making this a special vacation for you. Comfortable, attractive accommodations, warm hospitality, relaxed atmosphere, great food, serenity.
